

news & stuff

OK!

TOP 10

1 GWEN STEFANI is now adding baby clothes to her L.A.M.B. line. The soon-to-be mom said, "Babies have nothing to wear so I am in the perfect position to rectify that."

2 WESEEMOVIES.COM Check out this fresh, fun movie blog before you hit the theater.

3 ESTÉE LAUDER PURE COLOR NAIL LACQUER
Stars like Maggie Grace and Teri Hatcher prepped their nails with the polish before the Golden Globes.

4 REBEL YELL's new spring line of tees is already a favorite of Ashton Kutcher and Lindsay Lohan.

SHEETAL SHETH

Every time the gorgeous actress Sheetal Sheth thinks about her first movie, ABCD, she cringes. "I was so in over my head," says the Indian-American beauty. "I look back and wish I could do everything over."

Eight years and eight movies later, this New Jersey native says she still feels like she's learning her craft and adds that she's merely "hoping to be an actor." We believe it's time she gives herself the credit she deserves.

You can currently see the 29-year-old Sheetal in Albert Brooks' talked-about movie Looking for Comedy in the Muslim World. The minute she heard that he was doing a movie and that it was being cast in India, Sheetal wanted in. Her parents are from India and Sheetal feels that, even though she wasn't born there, her upbringing and frequent trips to the country made her perfect for this role. "Thankfully Albert saw how passionate I was and took a chance," she tells OK!. — R.C.

WHO'S HOT